

The romantic Ruinas del Mar is made for lovers!

What could be a more perfect way to spent the most romantic day of the year than dinner under the stars, watching black swans glide by while listening to the gentle sound of a waterfall? This was the way a number of couples spent the day dedicated to desire, and certainly the embers were stirred by a very special evening with their significant other in the Ruinas del Mar restaurant of the Hyatt Regency Resort.

Ruinas del Mar featured a choice of a fabulous three or four course dinner from their gourmet chef Miguel, who took the time to come out and chat with old friends.

One of the most appealing aspects of the Ruinas del Mar is not only the fine food, but the beautiful surroundings, where diners can sit on the terrace watching the blacks swans make their way back and forth, sometime coming up to the tables to beg a crumb. The beauty of nature was part of the Valentine's Day theme for the holiday festivities, as not only did each lady receive her traditional red rose, but also every person that enjoyed the special holiday menu received a complimentary visit to the Aruba Butterfly Farm. So for many, the romantic interlude did not have to end with dinner, but they can keep the mojo going as they visit a "tropical garden teeming with exotic butterflies." We must agree with the Hyatt management, along with the environs of the Ruinas del Mar, "it is one of the most beautiful and romantic settings in Aruba!"
